

AIATSIS Seminar Series

Mondays 12.30-2.00pm

Mabo Room, AIATSIS, Lawson Crescent, Acton

Series Theme

Seminars for semester 1, 2008, will focus on Education and Knowledge Transfer

17-Mar-08	Dr Chris Sarra , Indigenous Education Leadership Institute – Indigenous Children of the Education Revolution
24-Mar-08	Easter Monday public holiday
31-Mar-08	Dr Fiona Reynolds , University of Melbourne, Children’s Ideas of Number and Quantity in a Remote Indigenous Community
07-Apr-08	Prof Paul Chartrand , University of Saskatchewan - Who is Indigenous? Questions relating to state legal and policy definitions
16-Apr-08 (Wednesday)	Dr Lester-Irabinna Rigney , Flinders University – Health Literacies and Indigenous education
21-Apr-08	Dr Annette Baturo , Queensland University of Technology – Indigenous Ways of Knowing and Learning Early Number
28-Apr-08	Ms Kerry Arabena , AIATSIS - Youth & substance abuse and sexual health – what is the message and the medium
05-May-08	Ms Laura Bennetts-Kneebone , FaCSIA - Footprints in time project
12-May-08	Dr Jo Taylor , AIATSIS - Transitions to schooling
19-May-08	Prof Ian Malcolm , Edith Cowan University - “You translate it into meaning”: Observations on Knowledge Transfer between teachers and Aboriginal English speaking students
26-May-08	Prof Marilyn Fleer , University of Melbourne - "early childhood education"
02-Jun-08	Assoc Prof Lyn Henderson-Yates , The University of Notre Dame, - “It must have been hard for you to live in an Aboriginal community”: The invisibility of a fair complexioned Aboriginal woman.